NEWFOUNDLAND & LABRADOR CLAIMS TWO NATIONAL TITLES

NIAGARA FALLS, ON, AUGUST 30, 2006: Sabrina Fitzpatrick, the reigning Miss Teen Newfoundland & Labrador, received the title of Miss Teen Canada Scholarship this evening at the Hilton Hotel in Niagara Falls. She was one of 37 teens from across the country that competed for the title. Kristen Parsons, a former Miss Teen Newfoundland & Labrador 2002, competed in the "Miss" division and claimed the Miss Canada Scholarship title!

Other awards:

Sabrina won the awards for Fashion and Evening Wear in the teen category. Kristen also received the awards for Fashion and Evening Wear in her division, but added the Talent, TV Spokesperson, and Photogenic awards - as well as Miss Congeniality.

"Canada Pageants Corporation (CPC) is one of the nation's leading achievement programs and the largest scholarships and rewards programs in Canada. Since 2003, the Organization made available, over $100,000 in cash, scholarships and prizes to its local and national titleholders." (CPC handbook)

Sabrina is a 16 year-old, level 2 student at Bishop's College (with a 93% average from level 1). She was crowned Miss Teen Newfoundland & Labrador at the St. John's Arts & Culture Centre this past February. As Miss Teen Newfoundland & Labrador, she has traveled the province, attending numerous events, festivals and assisted several charitable organizations. Her personal platform is Healthy Living, and most recently, she organized a Family Fun Day in aid of the Kids' Eat Smart Foundation of Newfoundland & Labrador.

Kristen, from Wabush, is 20 years-old and is currently attending St. Francis Xavier University in Nova Scotia studying nursing (in her final year) with plans to attend med school next fall. Kristen was Miss Teen Newfoundland & Labrador in 2002.

"Emphasizing intelligence, style, personality and culture, Canada Pageants Corporation seeks to promote today's woman and her commitment to community, family, career and education. "
